

use the derogatory term—"that he would be scapegoated by Putin and the Kremlin and held responsible for the backlash. . . ."

Page after page, Mr. Ivanov appears. He is at the center of this. And if we know this, then Mr. Mueller knows this. And if we know this, Mr. Mueller knows more.

So this is the dossier, which has been public now since early last year. And I wanted to bring this to the floor last year, but we chose to do it another way, if you remember, in trying to get the President's taxes made public.

So I will conclude with this, Mr. Speaker—you have been patient. This is, to me, a big deal: 83 percent of this dossier has been proven correct. I did not use anything that was dubious of the 17 percent.

So I say to you, the Congress has a right, as an equal branch of government, to review what has happened so that our President, as Mr. Shaub, the Director of the Office of Government Ethics, said to President Trump: What you need to do is cut yourself off from your assets. That is what you need to do. That is what you must do.

And, obviously, he did not do it.

So there is a lot of material out there. Going at this a year and a half is not a long time. You know how long Watergate took. But I would think that this is going to take longer than Watergate—that is my opinion—on some of these things which will have to be traced. Some people have been indicted. Some people are going to prison already. But I am telling you, the bulk of information is going to be laid out when Mr. Mueller is ready, not when I am ready or anybody in the Chamber is ready.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are reminded to refrain from engaging in personalities toward the President.

Mr. PASCRELL. That is unacceptable. I did not engage in any personalities. I read from the record. I didn't call anybody a name. If I read it, it was somebody else that was writing it, not me.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Remarks in debate in the House may not engage in personalities toward the President, whether originating as the Member's own words or being reiterated from another source.

Mr. PASCRELL. The President is not above the law, sir. I am not above the law.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the gentleman have a motion?

Mr. PASCRELL. No, I don't have a motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is not recognized for debate at this time.

Mr. PASCRELL. Do you want me to make a motion to extend? Is that what you are asking me to do?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would entertain a motion to adjourn at this time.

Mr. PASCRELL. Fine. You have it your way. I will be back.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. PASCRELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 7 o'clock and 4 minutes p.m.), the House adjourned until tomorrow, Friday, July 13, 2018, at 9 a.m.
